

Rozklad západo-římské říše (476 po Kr.)

Map showing the division of the Western Roman Empire in 476 AD. The map is color-coded to show various kingdoms and tribal territories. Key regions include the Visigothic Kingdom (pink), the Ostrogothic Kingdom (red), the Burgundian Kingdom (orange), the Frankish Kingdom (red), the Saxon Kingdom (green), the Vandal Kingdom (yellow), and the Suebic Kingdom (orange). Major cities like Rome, Constantinople, and Antiochia are marked. The map also shows the territories of the Slavic, Hunnic, and Avar peoples.