
Student and Staff support

The University provides a wide range of support for students with special needs.

The Carolina Centre is a team of professional advisers who give assistance and information about possible adjustments.

The Carolina Centre also offers free counselling for all students and staff.